

Mr. Amol Kulkarni
Director (Research)
CUTS International

Amol Kulkarni is Director (Research) at CUTS International, a global non-profit, promoting consumer welfare through optimal regulation, good governance, and rules based trade.

He has led several initiatives to collect and analyse evidence, and design targeted interventions to answer complex policy related questions. These include large scale and in-depth interactions with consumers, businesses and other stakeholders in communications, finance, mobility, energy, among other sectors.

Amol is adept in use of tools like regulatory impact assessment and competition assessment. He holds bachelor degrees in law and business administration with honours in corporate laws, and has several publications to his credit.