

Shri Devusinh Chauhan
Minister of State for Communications
DoT, Govt. of India

Shri Devusinh Chauhan was born on 29th October, 1964 in Navagam village of Kheda district in the State of Gujarat. He obtained Diploma in Electrical Engineering from the Government Polytechnic College in Porbandar, Gujarat. He worked as an engineer in Akashwani Kendra an organization under the Government of India for 13 years. Subsequently, he left the government service in 2002 to join public life as a politician to serve the people of India.

Shri Devusinh Chauhan won Vidhan Sabha election from Matar constituency of Kheda district of Gujarat in 2007. He was re-elected as Member of Legislative Assembly of Matar in 2012. He was elected as Member of Parliament for the 16th Lok Sabha from Lok Sabha constituency of Kheda, Gujarat in 2014. He again won Lok Sabha Constituency from the same constituency in 2019. He served as a Member of Parliamentary Committee on Water Resources and Defence. He has also served as a Member of Consultative Committee of the Ministry of Communications & Information Technology and Ministry of Food Processing Industries. He has undergone a short course at King's College, London which was organized by the British High Commission.

He assumed the charge of the Union Minister of State for Communications on 7th July, 2021 in the Council of Minister headed by the Hon'ble Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi.